Subject: Request for an extension to file or submit the report of third-party partisan pre-election advertising expenses for force majeure reasons

Certain situations may prevent the filing or submission of the report of third-party partisan pre-election advertising expenses, including the death, illness, absence, misconduct, or physical incapacity of the third party or their representative, as well as any reasonable motive, including a cause of force majeure.

In this context, as the third party (if the third party is a natural person) or as the representative, I am submitting this form, along with the relevant supporting documents, to explain the situation and to justify my request.

The preparation of the partisan pre-election advertising expense report for _____ was interrupted for the following reason:

Name or designation of the third party

- Absence
- Death
- Illness
- Misconduct
- Physical incapacity
- Other reasonable grounds (specify): _____
- Force majeure situation (specify): _____

Therefore, I am asking the Chief Electoral Officer to grant an extension of up to 30 days to file this report pursuant to sections 127.37 and 444 of the Election Act.
