What is an election?

It is a process by which people who are eligible vote to choose the person who will represent them. That person will be the Member of Parliament for the electoral division.

An electoral division is a territory with approximately 50,000 voters. There are 125 electoral divisions in the province of Québec.

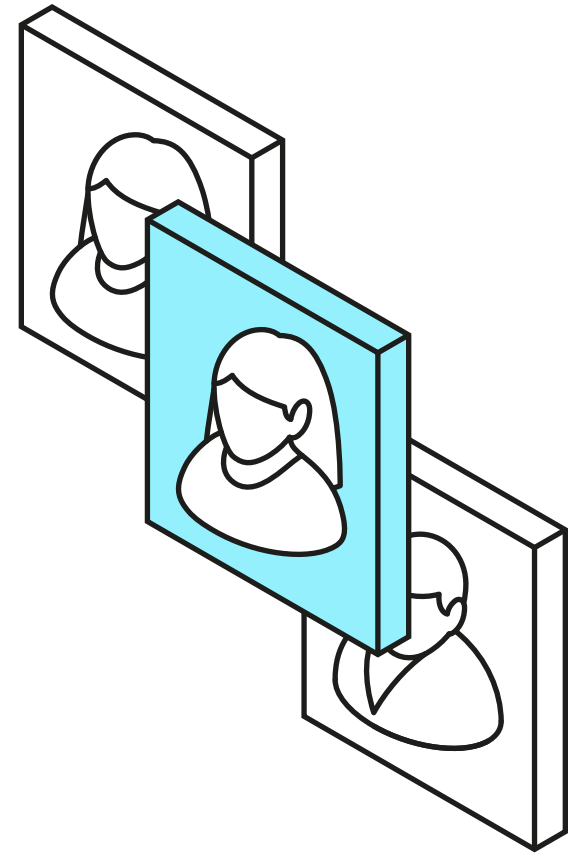

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

You will vote for only one of the candidates running for office
in your electoral division.

Role of Élections Québec

Élections Québec organizes elections in Québec.

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

To vote:

Your name must be entered on the list of electors

You must be 18 years of age or older

You must be a Canadian citizen

You must have lived in Québec for at least six months

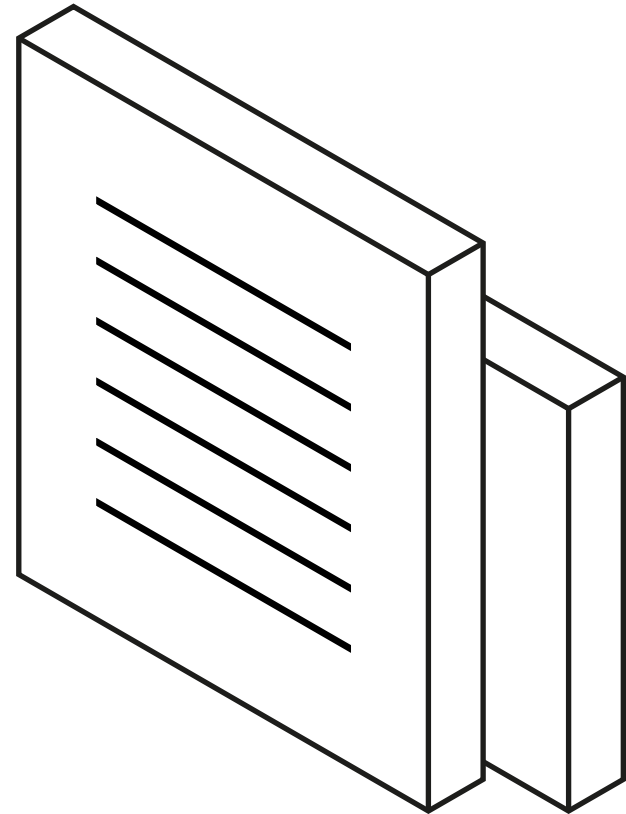

You must not have lost your election rights

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

Is your name entered on the list of electors?

Your name and your current address must be entered on the list of electors.

Check to see if your name and current address are entered.
It's your responsibility!

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

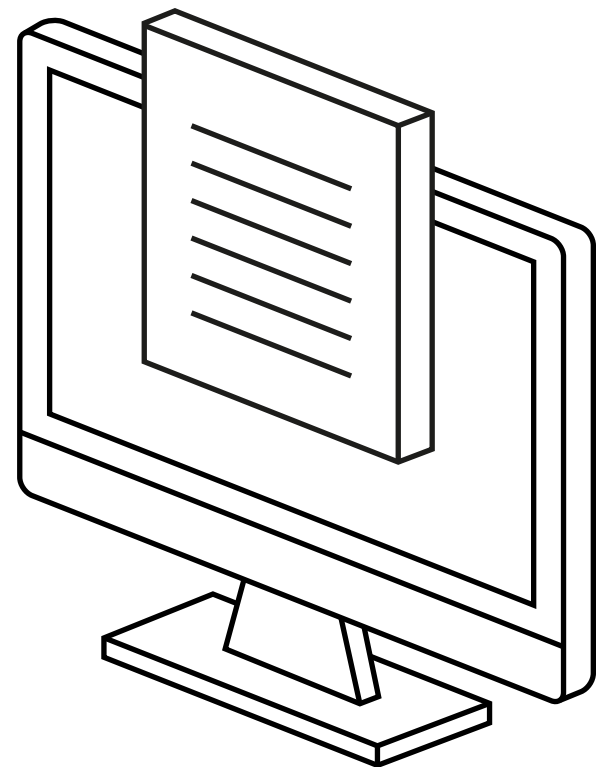

You can check it:

- On the notice of entry you will receive by mail
- Online at www.electionsquebec.qc.ca/en

If your name is not on the list of electors, you can register online.

If you notice an error,
you can change your registration.

Important: you must do so before the deadline.

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

This notice of entry is two-sided:

- One side shows the names of electors residing at your address and entered on the list of electors
- The other side shows the address you should report to if your name is not on the notice or if it is misspelled

Bring your driver's license or two identification documents. They should allow us to verify your name, date of birth and address.

Would you like to vote before election day?

Check your notice of entry to find out where advance polling is available.

There are several options for voting before election day. You can find out more:

- On the website at www.electionsquebec.qc.ca/en
- By calling us at 1-888-353-2846

All advance polling locations are accessible to people with reduced mobility. (♿)

The image shows a sample of a Quebec advance polling notice, which is a document that voters receive. It is divided into several sections:

- Voter par anticipation / Advance polling: This section provides information on how to vote in advance, including the location of the polling station and the hours of operation. It also includes a section for voters with reduced mobility, indicating that the polling station is accessible.
- S'inscrire ou modifier son inscription sur la liste électorale / Register or change your registration on the list of electors: This section provides information on how to register or change your registration, including the location of the registration office and the hours of operation.
- Autres options pour voter / Other options for voting: This section provides information on other ways to vote, such as by mail or by proxy.
- Vous voulez travailler aux élections? / Do you want to work during the elections?: This section provides information on how to apply for a job during the elections.

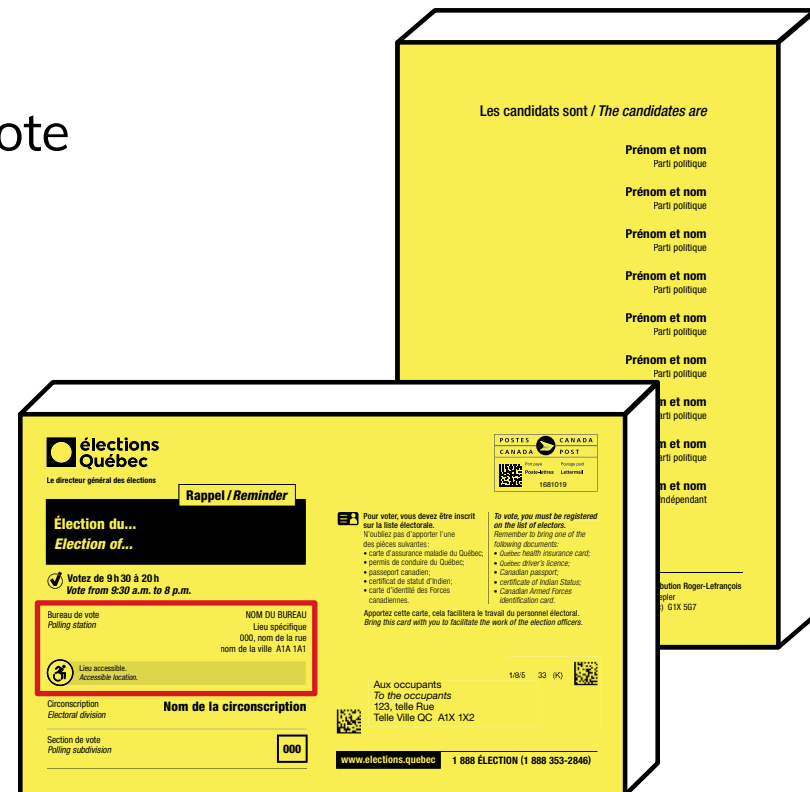

The notice also includes a section for voters with reduced mobility, indicating that the polling station is accessible. At the bottom, there is a section for voters who want to work during the elections, providing information on how to apply for a job.

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

One week before election day,
you will receive a yellow reminder card.

The card is two-sided:

- One side indicates where to vote on election day
- The other side lists the names of the people you can vote for

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

Can't get out to vote?

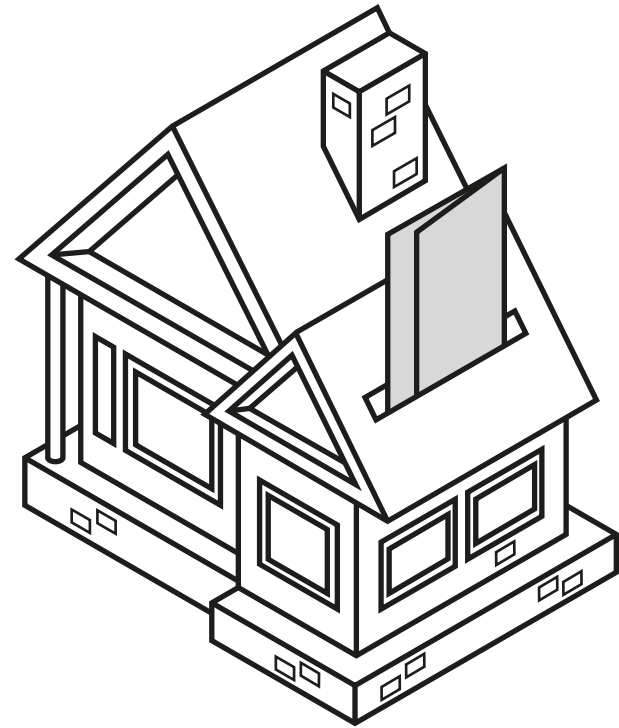

If you have a health problem that prevents you from getting to the polling station, you can vote at home.

To do so, register soon.
You must respect the deadline.

To vote at home,
write or call the office of your returning officer.

To find out the phone number and address of this office, visit the website at www.electionsquebec.qc.ca/en or call us at 1-888-353-2846.

Someone will contact you to set up an appointment.

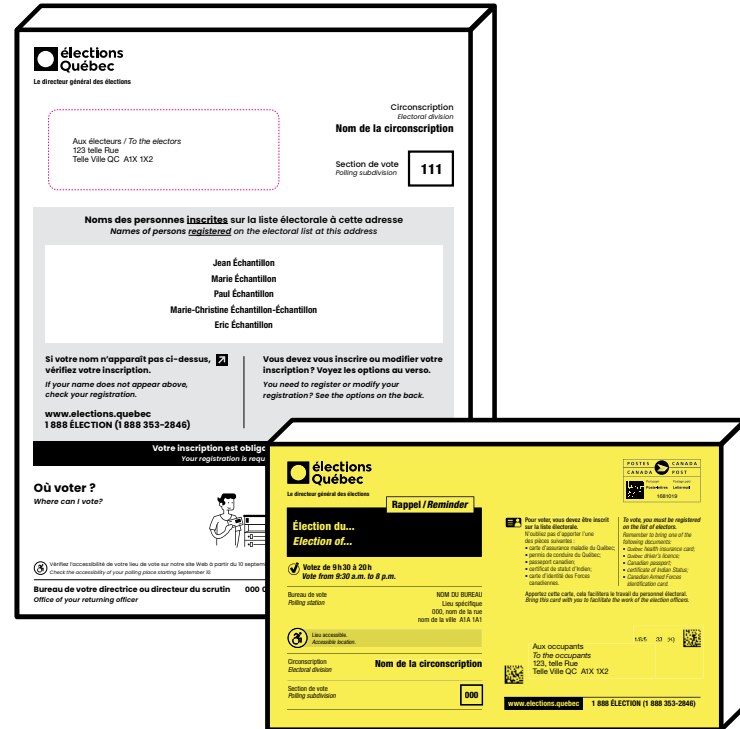

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

How do I vote?

Report to the address indicated on:

- The white notice for advance polling
- The yellow card for voting on election day

Someone will greet you at the polling location. They will then point you in the right direction.

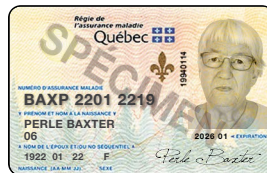

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

Bring one of the following pieces of identification:

Your Québec driver's licence

Your Québec health insurance card

Your Canadian passport

Your Certificate of Indian Status

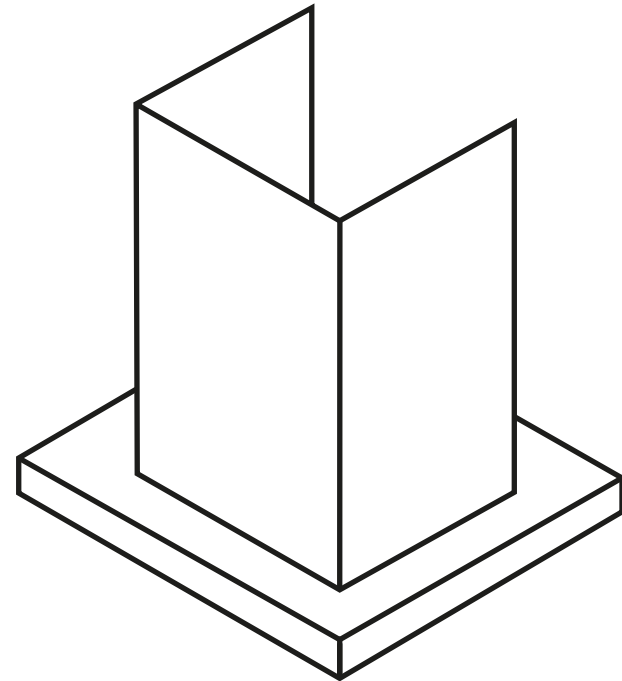

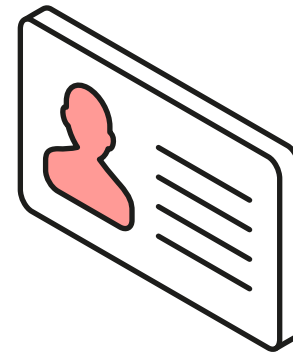

Your Canadian Forces identification card

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

At the table,
state your name and address and show your identification.

You will receive a ballot paper and a pencil.

Go behind the cardboard polling booth.

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

On the ballot, make an X, check or mark in the circle next to the name of the person you want to vote for.

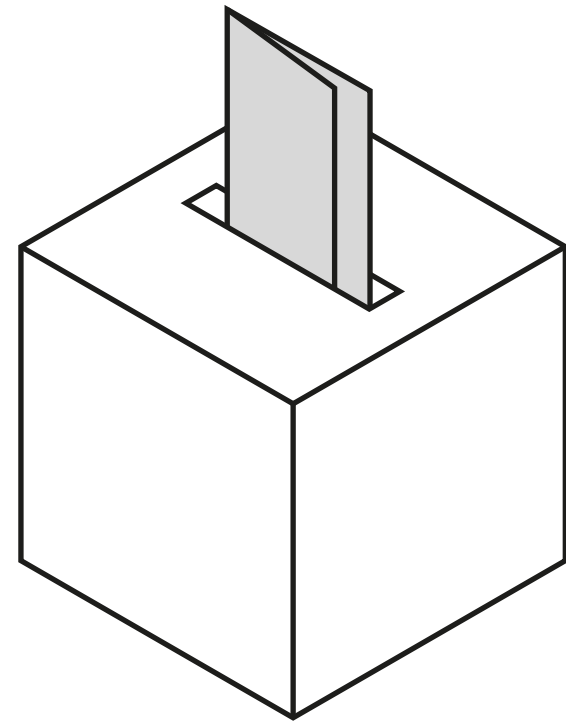

Only vote for one person on the ballot paper.

It's OK if your mark extends a bit beyond the circle.

Just make sure it doesn't touch another circle.

Fold the ballot paper and go back to the table.

The person at the table will tell you how to put your ballot paper in the ballot box on the table.

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

Access to polling locations

On election day,
nearly all polling locations are accessible to people with reduced mobility.

You can check whether your polling location is accessible on the www.electionsquebec.qc.ca/en website.

If your polling location is not accessible, please contact your returning officer.

You will be allowed to vote at another location.

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

Results of the poll

Results will be announced
on election day
after 8 p.m.

The results will be posted on the website at www.electionsquebec.qc.ca/en.

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.

If you want to make a political contribution

Every year, you can contribute up to $100 to each authorized political party, each authorized independent Member and each authorized independent candidate.

If there is an election in your electoral division
during the year, you can donate up to $200.

Make sure to get a receipt for each of your contributions.

If you have any questions,
call us toll-free at 1-888-353-2846.
